Section V – Student Funding

The Ember Quill recommends that each student be given at least $500 with which to invest and engage in various financial activities covered in this course.

All conditions below must be met and agreed to.

I confirm that my son/daughter/dependent is emotionally stable and of sound mind and spirit.

I confirm that my son/daughter/dependent will suffer no financial hardship as a result of losing money given to him or her as part of this course. I acknowledge that The Ember Quill does not want students in this course to be in a precarious financial situation or to have a desperate mindset.

I acknowledge that, during the second week of the course, The Ember Quill will give students a form to be read in consultation with their parents/guardians, providing multiple detailed options for how best to give students their investment allocations. I acknowledge that I may need to assist the student in this process.

Section VI – Bonuses

All bonuses listed below will be distributed no later than July 1st.

(i) Early Registration. Students who register and make a deposit by April 20th will receive a $100 bonus.

(ii) Refer-a-Friend. If the friend of another student registers and pays tuition, both will receive a $150 bonus. Students can receive up to four referral bonuses. Please note that the student being referred needs to list you as a referee in Section I of the registration form.

(iii) Former Students. Former SAT/ACT students receive an automatic $150 bonus.

Bonus Distribution Preference — Choose ONE:

Given to Student. Any bonus will be given to the student in the form of USDC or GUSD as part of his or her investment allocation.

Given to Parent/Guardian. Any bonus will be given to the parent/guardian as tuition reimbursement.

Section VII – Financial Advice

Please confirm that you have read the below.

I acknowledge that my son/daughter/dependent will be responsible for all investment decisions that he or she makes; and will be responsible for his or her use of financial tools used in this course.

I acknowledge that The Ember Quill does not employ a licensed financial advisor and does not provide financial advice. I acknowledge that any and all counsel given and content taught in this course is exclusively for educational purposes.

Section VIII – Signatures
